DIFEN LOCK TO RESCUE MAN.

Inrushing Water Floats IIIm Within Reach of Assistance.

DELAWARE CITY, March 12.—When Edwin C. Reybold, a sixty-year-old lumber merchant of this town, fell into the Delaware & Chesapeake Canal lock last night he was rescued in a most unusual manner. The water was low at the time, and his cries brought many men willing to assist him, but he was so deep in the lock that he could not be reached. Even when a rope that was thrown to him was fastened about his body the men could not pull him up, and it then was decided to open the lock. Reybold was held above water by means of the rope, and, as the lock filled, he gradually floated Throat.

YORK, PA., March 12.—Having lost his last penny at gambling, Edward Sctendorf, a tobacco agent, slashed his throat with a razer from ear to ear in an attempt at suicide. He was found lying in a pool of blood this evening in the stables at the Felion Hotel, At the York Hospital it is said the chances for his recovery are slight.

The would-be suicide is young and unmarried, It is said that he had been gambling for the past several days, and today lost his tast cent. This caused him to become despondent.

Three Villages Buried

VICTORIA. B. C., March 12.—News of landslides, burying three villages, involving the loss of a thousand lives at Pendjolo, Java, was brought to-day by the steamer Empress of China. A part of Mount Kentjana fell, destroying the village of Tellosopelan and ing the village of Tgiboeboehan and the towns of Wardengsite and Telok-bangoe. But one man, one woman and two children escaped to tell the tale. Tons of earth were slipping as the vesbodies, mostly buried deep below tons of carth. Pestlience was feared. Dogs and birds were feeding on the bodies exposed to view.

Children Burn to Death.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., March 12.—
While the parents were away from home, two children of Granville Miller, aged two years and one month, respectively, were burned to death today at Normantown, Gilmer county. Upon Mrs. Miller's return after a short absence she found the house in ashes and the remains of the children in the ruins of her home. How the fire started is not known.
